ZOD FARZAHN

Zod Farzahn was born in Tehran, Persia on September 6, 1960. Zod is a self-taught artist that has been drawing and painting since early childhood. In 1998, he earned a degree in computer animation from AIA. In addition to being a fine artist and a 3D animator, Zod plays flamenco and classical guitar. He was introduced to the arts by his gifted and musical family. His father was a renowned music instructor and composer, and his uncle was conductor for the national orchestra in Iran.

Though he explores many techniques and artistic themes, Zod's work consistently reflects intensity and a contemplative focus. He is particularly adept at capturing the beauty of the human form and expressing its complexity through the tension of light and shadow. His work has been valued for the past fifteen years through commissions by private collectors.
